There shall be examinations at the end of each semester as per the academic calendar of the University.

A candidate who does not pass the examination in any paper(s) shall be permitted to appear in such failed paper(s) in the subsequent examinations to be held in December/January or May/June. Those who fail in odd-semesters will appear in a subsequent examination of odd-semesters only. For example, if a student fails in a paper(s) in the 1st semester, s/he can appear in 3rd or 5th semester examinations only. The same applies to even-semesters. After the declaration of the result of the sixth semester examinations, special examinations will be conducted for clearing the backlog of 5th and 6th semesters.

A candidate should get enrolled/registered for the first semester examination. If enrollment/registration is not possible in the preceding semesters owing to shortage of attendance beyond condonation limit/ordinances prescribed OR belated joining OR on medical grounds, the candidates are not permitted to move to the next semester. Such candidates shall redo the semester in the following academic year as a regular student.

Student must have 75% of attendance in each course for appearing in the end Semester examination. A shortage of attendance upto 15% can be condoned by the Vice Chancellor as per Aryabhatta Knowledge University, Patna rules.

Passing of Examinations and Promotion Rules

A student will be promoted from second semester to the third semester and from fourth semester to the fifth semester if s/he has secured a minimum CGPA of 5.

Evaluation

Pattern of Evaluation of the End-semester examinations will be as per the rules of the University.

The performance of a student in each course is evaluated in terms of percentage of marks with a provision for conversion to grade points. Evaluation for each course shall be done by a continuous internal assessment (CIA) by the course teacher concerned as well as by an end semester examination and will be consolidated at the end of the course. The ratio of marks to be allotted to continuous internal assessment and to end semester examination is 40:60. The evaluation of practical work, wherever applicable, will also be based on continuous internal assessment and on an end-semester practical examination.

The details of the Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) should be worked out by the Institute and a copy should be given to the University. All the relevant records of the CIA should be preserved by the Institute till the student passes out.

The passing minimum for ESE & MSE Theory shall be 33% and CPA & ESE Practical shall be 45% separately. Failed candidates in the Internal Assessment are permitted to improve their Internal Assessment marks by writing a re-test or by submitting assignments as per the decision of the Institute/ Authority.

Awarding of Degree

Degree will be awarded to a student provided; s/he fulfils the following conditions:

A student passes in all examinations and thus earns the required number of credits.

S/he completes the requirement of spending 30 hours during the period of three years in involving herself/himself in social work in order to raise the social consciousness of the students and make a small contribution to society.

This could be in a village/NGO/Charitable Institutions or NSS or Adult Literacy Programme, etc. A declaration letter from the Institute regarding the completion of required number of hours to the University is a must.

Successful candidates shall be awarded the class/division at the end of sixth semester examination based on the aggregate of marks obtained in semester examinations consisting of 3000 marks.

The following is the categorization of successful candidates based on marks obtained by them

(a)	75% and above	First Class with Distinction
(b)	60% < 75%	First Class
(c)	Rest successful candidates	Second Class

Each successful candidate of all the six semester taken together shall receive a certificate in the prescribed format, specifying the subject in which he/she was examined and the class in which he/she was placed.

A candidate who is placed first in the first class in the subject shall be awarded Gold Medal.

Student shall be expected to complete the requirement for the award of BMFP in a minimum period of three consecutive years and a maximum period of four years from the date of admission. There shall be no relaxation in lower or upper time limit of the programme.

A student, who has secured less than 45% mark in any end semester evaluation (ESE) shall be allowed to appear only once for the improvement of marks.

The Vice-Chancellor may appoint a board of moderation to look into all the examination conduct and result shall be published by the examination board of Aryabhatta Knowledge University, Patna.
